ERGOBATH[®]

Designed to offer the ultimate in wellness spa indulgence from the comfort and privacy of home, Ergobath® is based upon ergonomic and hydrotherapy principles.

A Day Spa Every Day.

Available in freestanding and inset models, Ergobath® also offers spa options for ultimate relaxation and rejuvenation.

Combining two of the oldest healing therapies, Hydrotherapy & Massage along with extreme comfort, Ergobath® provides revitalising health benefits and a day spa experience that can be enjoyed at any time.

Each Ergobath® is supplied with a stainless steel support frame for quick and easy installation. Tile or stone can be used on the surround of the inset bath while the freestanding option allows for a more minimalist style.

Ergobath® Classic Dimensions

Ergobath® Freestanding Bath

Ergobath® Inset Bath

Please note that all measurements are approximate.

* 620mm is minimum, the feet are adjustable so the overall height of the bath can vary.

Ergobath®

The luxuriously deep, ergonomically designed Ergobath® offers possibly the most comfortable bathing experience available.

The contemporary Ergobath® has additional foot rests ensuring the suitability for variable body heights and flexible positioning, while the arm locations offer comfort as well as support when stepping in and out. The gently sloping lumbar support combined with the unique head and neck cradle provide a superior level of comfort and indulgence. Due to the advanced ergonomic design, Ergobath® offers the luxury and feel of a much deeper bath yet requires significantly less water than other baths of a similar size*. Ergobath® is the perfect way to create the day spa experience at home.
